

CODE: GBH

STAFF PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Every teacher is a public relations agent for the school. The impressions made by teachers on pupils, co-workers, parents, and the community in general largely determine the reputation of a school system.

As professionals representing their schools, teachers should attend meetings and participate in activities that support education whenever possible. Their interests and efforts beyond the call of duty are the key to providing an outstanding education to the children of Kittery.

Adopted: September 17, 1985

Revised: September 3, 1991

Revised: July 5, 1994